The discrepancy referred to in this Office No: 11205/Ex 369 has been explained. The sale proceeds of the defaulter's property were put down at Rs 174-u-u in Deputy Commr's No: 380 of 26th May/1896. They are now reported to have been Rs 192-1-6. This figure added to Rs 120-u-u, the three months' cash security given by the farmer comes to 312-u-u shown in the remission Statement (col: 9 of the old remission statement, and col 13 of the one now sent up) The latter again added to by Rs 105/-, the amount realized by the resale of the farm and Rs 40/-, one months Khist paid by the farmer gives — Rs 457-1-6.

2. The defaulter is reported to have been traced at Chickballapur & to be a pauper. The amount outstanding against him of arrears viz Rs 142-14-6.

Sir,

I have the honor to state that one Sadli Narsimhia purchased the right of Vending Arrack in the Bangalore city separate shop No. 22 for a sum of Rs 600 for the 15 months ending with the 30th June 1894. He paid the rental for the first month. Thenceforward he put off punctual payment of the rental amount in spite of coercive measures being adopted on every default. The case having been found quite hopeless and the arrears having accumulated to a large amount, the shop was resold on 29th January 1893. His property was attached and sold and the proceeds credited towards the reduction of the amount of arrears. Even after the expiry of the lease the defaulter was pursued and Rs 42/4 recovered recovered from him. Thus in all a sum of Rs 45-7-1-6 has been collected from him, leaving a balance of Rs 142-14-6, which is irrecoverable.

I have the honor to submit herewith a remission statement for the above sum and to request that Government sanction may be obtained to strike off the said sum from the account, as irrecoverable balance.

No. A. 380

With reference to his docket No. 1659/90 dated 16th October 1895, has the honor to state that a report was received from the Head Supervisor on the 29th July 1893, that Sadali Narsimaiya, License-holder of Bangalore city Arrack shop No 22, had not paid his rent for for May and June 1893. The Amildar of the Bangalore Taluk was directed on the 8th August 1893 to recover the amount from the defaulter at once. A notice for payment was served on him by the Amildar on the 18th of the same month, but no further steps were taken till January 1894 when peremptory orders were sent to resell the shop. The delay in taking immediate coercive measures arose from the negligence of the Taluk officials, which was duly noticed at the time.

2. From the resale of the shop in January 1894, a sum of Rs 105/- was realized and from the distress and sale of the defaulter's property, a sum of Rupees 174-1-6 was recovered leaving a balance of Rs 142-14-6 un-collected. Narasimaiya left Bangalore long ago and his present whereabouts are not known. All his property has already been attached and sold. The balance of Rs 142-14-6 still due from him is irrecoverable.

enquiry was made there with the result that no property belonging to him was found.
I beg to solicit therefore that the irrecoverable balance of Rs 142-14-6, may be ordered

Ex. No: 1 Statement.

His Official Memo No: $\frac{5410}{291}$ of the $\frac{30^{th}}{}$ ultimo.

With reference to the above, has the honor to state that the Bangalore City Arrack Shop No: 22 was sold to Sadle Narasimmaya for 15 months from the beginning of April 1893, to the end of June 1894 for Rs 600/- Sadle Narasimmaiya paid the kist of Rs 40/- only for the first month and afterwards became a defaulter. His security deposit deposit of Rs. 120/- was forfeited and, credited towards the arrears due from him, and from the resale of the shop, a sum of Rs 105/- was realized. From the distress and sale of the defaulter's property from time to time, as noted in the margin, a total sum of Rs 192-1-6 was obtained. Thus, as stated in this office No: 143, dated 16th October 1895, a sum of Rs 457-1-6 was in all realized leaving a balance of Rs 142-14-6 irrecoverable. For the sake of clearness, a fresh remission statement, in the new printed form is herewith submitted, detailing all the sums realized up to the present and the balance which has to be remitted as unrealizable
